

Alicia Calvin

2 Roosevelt Steptoe Drive, Suite 116, Baton Rouge, Louisiana 70813 Cell: (318) 503-0290
alicia.calvin@sulc.edu

EDUCATION

Southern University Law Center, Baton Rouge, LA

Juris Doctor Candidate, May 2028

- Recipient, HBCU IP & Tech Law Summit
- Student Mediator, Mediation Clinic
- President, SBA Evening Division

Louisiana State University, Baton Rouge, LA

Bachelor of Arts, Political Science, December 2005

CERTIFICATIONS

- United States Department of Labor Application Developer Certificate

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Corporate Counsel Women of Color® Summer Law & Leadership Learning Program, Remote

Legal Intern

May 2026 – Present

- Conduct legal and policy research on international law, data privacy, artificial intelligence governance, regulatory compliance, and global governance frameworks.
- Monitor developments in AI regulation, data protection, privacy law, and emerging technology policy to support legal and compliance-related projects.
- Assist with drafting memoranda, summaries, reports, and presentations analyzing emerging legal, regulatory, and risk-management issues.

Southern University Law Center Technology & Entrepreneurship Clinic, Baton Rouge, LA

Student Attorney, United States Trade & Patent Office

January 2026 – May 2026

- Assisted in patent-related matters, including application drafting and technical documentation under supervision.
- Conducted legal research and analytical review involving intellectual property, innovation, entrepreneurship, and emerging technology issues.

19th Judicial District Court, Baton Rouge, LA

Judicial Intern, Office of Commissioner Kina Kimble

July 2025 – August 2025

- Conducted legal research and observed court proceedings involving complex legal and procedural issues.
- Assisted with legal analysis, case review, and preparation of research materials.
- Developed analytical and legal writing skills through exposure to judicial processes and litigation-related matters.

Louis A. Berry Institute for Civil Rights & Justice, Baton Rouge, LA

Intern, Juvenile Justice Reform Act Implementation Commission (JJRAIC)

August 2024 – December 2024

- Researched and drafted policy guides and conducted data analysis to support juvenile justice reform initiatives.

IBM, Baton Rouge, LA

Application Developer & Privacy Consultant

January 2023 – May 2025

- Supported privacy compliance related initiatives involving governance processes, regulatory review, and data privacy assessments within technology-focused environments
- Assisted with compliance reviews related to contractual privacy obligations, governance processes, and technology-focused operational controls.
- Collaborated with cross-functional teams on technology, compliance, documentation, and process-improvement projects requiring strong attention to regulatory detail.